

THE GAZETTE.

TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 21.

FASHION.—A fashion writer says: "Imported cloth garments for the street consist of fancy coats and jackets, such as women might wear who were masquerading as men. They are in dark cloths, in the prettiest shapes imaginable, the edges piped with peacock green or blue silk, mustard-colored silk, or some other striking shade, of which only the single line above the rim is permitted. But the tails or lappels and the dear little vests and buttons, fastened with old silver or pearl buttons, are "too killing"—as young ladies say—for anything, and suggest canes and neckties and manillas, and all the cautions which is supposed to be so fascinating."

A WHITE SAVAGE.—A Detroit wife has demanded a divorce from her husband upon the following grounds: 1. He is inebriated on an average twenty-seven days in every month. 2. He cut off her hair while she slumbered. 3. He is accustomed to awake her at daylight by throwing several pails of cold water over the bed. 4. He has attempted to force her to go down her throat. 5. He has forced her to go without shoes and stockings. 6. He puts hot potatoes in her hands and then mashes them by squeezing her fingers. It is thought by a majority of the best lawyers in Detroit that this singularly treated dame is entitled to a separation.
